

WEBSITE PRIVACY POLICY

We understand and value your privacy. Berkeley Eye Center does not sell or distribute contact information. All data collected through any website form is used only to provide you with better customer service.

At Berkeley Eye Center, we leverage Google's cookie-based technology to group users into re-marketing audiences who have expressed an interest in our procedures by accessing key pages throughout our website. We do not collect any personally identifying information with this cookie. Audience members may be shown Berkeley Eye Center text and/or image ads on any Google or 3rd party Internet sites for a limited period of time. Visitors may opt out of re-marketing by visiting Google's Ads Settings <<http://www.google.com/settings/ads>> <<http://www.google.com/settings/ads>> > .
